

2009 Fornacina, Brunello di Montalcino

Simone Biliorsi and Janne Enevoldsen's wine combines fruit from Castelnuovo and vineyards to the south-east of the town to good effect. This shows the heat of the vintage - the zone around the winery is called "the furnaces" in Italian - but has plenty of structure, too. Savoury tobacco, blackberry fruit sweetness, dense tannins and a lift of acidity all combine well here in a plush, mouth-filling wine. 2015-22
